25X1	Reached Marian Czarnecki, Staff Director of House Foreign Affairs Committee, at his office this afternoon to inform him directly of our desire to get with the Committee at an early date to cover the reports required by the recent Foreign Assistance Act amendments. I said the Director would like a preliminary meeting with Chairman Morgan however. Czarnecki said he would check the Chairman's schedule and be back in touch.
·	I also asked Czarnecki what he thought the position of the majority of their members would be on the subject of a select committee. He said it was his feeling that although Representative Zablocki has urged establishment of a joint committee for many years, that since they now have "a piece of the action" they would oppose any proposal for a special or select

25X1	Tried to reach Marian Czarnecki, Chief of Staff, House Foreign Affairs Committee, but learned that he is not yet back from vacation. I then contacted Jack Sullivan of the Committee staff. I told Sullivan of my conversation of last night with Jack Brady, also a Committee staff member, and our anxiety to work out arrangements for the Foreign Assistance Act briefings on covert activities now that we have received the Presidential finding. Sullivan said he was sure that Czarnecki would not be able to focus on this for a few days because he is very much involved in preparing some material on a conference on a House Select Committee. He did say he would have Czarnecki get in touch with me when he returns, however.
25X1	Chris Winters, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, called and asked if we could give her an address to which they could send a telegram from Chairman John C. Stennis (D., Miss.) to Ambassador Helms. After checking around and on the suggestion of Byron Morton on the NE/AIRN Desk at State and with Kempton Jenkins with
M.	State's Legislative Liaison office, it was decided the telegram should be sent to Ambassador Richard Helms, c/o Mr. Byron Morton, State Department, NE/AIRN Desk, Washington, D.C. I told Miss Winters that Helms was out of town and would be back on Monday.
25X1	The Director called to advise me of a conversation with Chairman George H. Mahon (D., Texas), House Appropriations Committee, today. Mahon will be seeing the new House members and wanted the Director to know that he now feels that the oversight of the Agency's activities must be by the full Defense Subcommittee rather than by the "Special Group" as in the past.
25X1	Galled Russ Rourke on Jack Marsh's White House staff to talk with him about the House caucus consideration of Representative Michael Harrington's (D., Mass.) proposal for a Select Committee on Intelligence. I also mentioned the report we had received to the effect that under the custom of the House, the first sponsor of a proposal for a Select Committee which may subsequently be adopted is normally appointed Chairman of that Select Committee. I also mentioned that most of the people on the Armed Services Committee feel they can defeat the Harrington proposal in the caucus

5X1	In the absence of Marian Czarnecki, Chief of Staff, House Foreign Affairs Committee. I talked to Jack Brady, of the Committee staff, to let him know things are moving along regarding our compliance with section 32 of the Foreign Assistance Act. The President has signed and sent to the Director his findings as required under the Act. At the appropriate time, the Director can get together with the Chairman. Unfortunately the Director will be scheduled almost solidly for the next two weeks with hearings on the domestic activities allegations. I said he would like to get together with the Chairman and discuss how they are going to handle it. I just wanted to let them know we've made progress on the thing and that perhaps I could get together with Czarnecki at the beginning of the week and we could get our bosses together. Brady said he would pass this
